Blue English limestone is perhaps the most classic of all the English limestone. Blue English has been used extensively since the 11th century in the construction of many historic houses and churches in England, including both Canterbury and St. Paul's Cathedral. Unique in its coloration, varying from light brown through grays and greens to the predominant blue limes, this limestone makes the utmost in elegant statements. Blue English comes from a very old and small quarry, keeping this fine stone as rare as it is beautiful.

Blue English limestone is available in approximate sizes:

16" x 16" x 1"

16" x 24" x 1"

No Slabs are available in Blue English limestone. It would be a crime to texture this exquisite stone.
