Antique Normande- As the name implies these stones are reclaimed from the Normandy Region of France. Extremely rare, these floors are as precious as they are beautiful. Hundreds of years in age, the hand shaping and smoothing of the surface add the feeling of history to any room.

Antique Normande has an understated coloration of neutral beiges and subtle highlights of steel grey. Available in a truly random floor with no pattern and in coursed lengths, these stones are rarely larger than 12" x 12". The thickness will vary from 1" to 1¼".
