Antique Red Terracotta- These terracotta tiles are actual antique reclaimed, hand-made clay tiles from the Loire Valley, Bordeaux and Provence regions of France, respectively. The tiles were the traditional materials used for floor covering in every room of a building. Molded by hand and fired in wood burning kilns, these tiles will immediately impact the European country feeling that is so desired in homes today.

Antique Red Terracotta is up to three hundred years in age. The most common size are 6" and 8" tiles but larger have also been found. Thickness will vary at 1¼" nominal. Coloration varies from rustic pinks to deep reds.
