

PARIS CERAMICS

Antique Negev and Antique Hebron are reclaimed from public buildings, courtyards and private residences in Israel. At less than 150 years in age, these are the youngest of the antique stones offered by Paris Ceramics. These floors are full of life and bring sunshine to any interior.

Antique Negev is rich and golden with tawny highlights. Available in a truly random sized floor or in coursed lengths. It varies in thickness from 1" to 1¼".

Antique Hebron is creamy tan with flaxen and gold shadowing. Available in truly random sizes with no pattern or in coursed lengths. It varies in thickness from 1" to 1¼".
